

MES DU Health Check Service for WinGD 2-stroke main engines

MES DU Health Check Service provide a latest main engine condition. It leads the fine management of operational risk and clarify the latest operating cost of main engine.

The MESDU Health Check is an assessment of the main engine condition during a normal port stay. The vessel managers can take necessary action to improve engine conditions and operational risk by our detail evaluated report include an indication of possible options of rectification and action recommendation.

INSPECTION ITEMS

- General engine condition (Visual, around the engine)
- Crankcase inspection
- Piston underside inspection
- Supply unit and gear train inspection
- Engine control system and wiring inspection
- Cylinder lubricating system inspection

Further components and engine systems inspection can be included on customer's request.

Pre-inspection for drydocking is also available on request.

Contact

Mitsui E&S DU Co., Ltd.
 Parts Sales Department

